

POZDRAVNI GOVOR

Dear colleagues continental directors E.C., R. Metz, dear president of Chef's Associations, dear competitors, ladies and gentlemen, welcome to Slovenia on competition Global Chef's Challenger!

We have the great pleasure and the honour to organize such demanding competition with international participation. We will proudly announce the winner, who will represent Southeastern Europe the next year on competition in Dubai and to compete with seven other best chefs of the world.

We'll do our best that competition will go with a swing without complication and we will try to make you comfortable in our small but very interesting country. I hope that program will not be too tiring and that you manage to take a moment of relaxation for yourselves and to become familiar to Slovenian typical national dishes and try good Slovenian wines.

Today's evening we will proceed on SŠGT (Secondary Scholl of Hospitality – Secondary School of Hotel Trade and Catering Industry) in Radovljica where we prepare for you Barilla party by the help of our sponsor Barilla at the opportunity of the world day of pasta 25th October. This evening we will also draw group A and B for each competition day Saturday and Sunday and we will take a look of kitchens where will competitions take places.

Official observer of WACS Mr. R. Metz will briefly summarize regulations of competition as we avoidance later complications during the competition itself.

Tomorrow's we all and sundry start in Hotel Golf in Hall Libertas, where you draw the lists of ingredients obligatory assortment which you can use to create menu. You will receive the list of wine which you will combine to separate dish in menu.

To all competitors I wish a lot of fortunately and excellent results!

To all participants and their spouses I wish a pleasant staying and a lot of nice moments in our country!
