

ZAKLJUČNI GOVOR

Honorable ladies and gentlemen, respectable sponsors, dear competitors!

We've left behind a new experience, we've seen a lot of new-made, we've learnt the trick from some slip and we've acquired the experience what is that notable detail on which our attention must be focused next time.

All of you were good; I can say the best, but unfortunately only one and solely is the best from the bests, therefore once more congratulation to winner!

I wish to express my thanks to sponsors for their support, to my director of Tourism and Hospitality Chamber for her moral support, to my colleagues who helped me in preparing and realization of competition and I wish to express special thanks to the president of Association of Chefs and Confectioners of Slovenia Mr. Tomaž Vozelj for real unselfish work he put in this project.

Finally, allow me to thank you - respectable competitors - for participation on competition!

To all of you I wish a nice evening and o pleasant journey to your home in hopes that you've experienced hospitality and notice the beauty of our county and that you will come back some day!

Thank you!
